

Action for Healthy Communities (AHC)
is proud to present a one day conference to share their experiences and approach in building community.

Who Should Attend: Anyone interested in building strong communities!
The Muttart Foundation has a limited number of bursaries available to cover registration costs for staff members and key volunteers of social service and early childhood education and care charities to attend this conference. For further information, visit www.muttart.org/bursary_program

Event Features: Keynote Speaker Mayor Stephen Mandel,
Presentations, Workshops, and More!

Main Presentation: "The Action for Healthy Communities model and the Ecological Participatory Action Research Approach (EPAR)"

Workshops: "Youth Out and About and Leading Change: AHC strategies to promote connected youth"

"Adult Transformative Learning:
from engagement to action, from action to change"

"Going from Strength to Strength:
empowering seniors to connect their experience to community"

AHC's First Annual Community Building Conference February 23, 2010

Ramada Hotel & Conference Centre
(11834 Kingsway Ave, Edmonton)

www.a4hc.ca

Early Bird Registration: $ 150 by January 31, 2010

Regular Registration: $ 175 after January 31, 2010

Registration includes presentations, workshops, refreshments and lunch.

Approved by Health and Human Service Careers Division, NorQuest College, for Alberta College of Social Workers (ACSW) Category "A" Continuing Competency Credits

To register visit https://www.regonline.ca/a4hc_conference or call (780) 944-4687

Thank you to all our Funders whose support has made this event possible:

Citizenship and
Immigration Canada

Citoyenneté et
Immigration Canada

Action for Healthy Communities

